

National Digital Library of India

The National Digital library of India (NDLI) (<https://ndl.iitkgp.ac.in/>) is a project under Ministry Of Human Resource Development, The Government of India developed and maintained by IIT, Kharagpur. It is a digital repository containing a huge number textbooks, articles, videos, audio books, lectures, simulations, fiction and all other kinds of learning media. The NDLI provides free of cost access to many books in the Indian languages and English.

Access to the resources can be done via website and mobile app, available for Android at Google Play.

Only registered users can access the resources.

Notice

Students and faculty members are requested to fill-up the Google Form given herewith so that our institute can proceed for registering your name in the NDLI repository. The link will remain active upto 21/05/2021. After successful inclusion of your name in the NDLI Database you will receive a validation link from NDLI via email. Then you need to validate the email to confirm the registration process. After that you can access the e-resources from NDLI database.

Principal

Link for Google Form:

<https://tinyurl.com/NDLIREgFormVSMLIB>

Link will remain active till : 21/05/2021

For any communication: Subhendu Kar, 7908246589