

Report on Handicrafts Exhibition - Cum Sale (Campus Bazar): An Activity carried by Students “Self Help Group” of V.S. Mahavidyalaya, Manikpara

Handicrafts remains one of the most cherished and skilled job which has sustained human civilisation since ages. Till today it remains the mode of livelihood for many rural and tribal areas across globe. It not only provides the skill to people, but also attaches them to their history and culture.

With same spirit and rationale Vivekananda Satavarshiki Mahavidyalaya, Manikpara with the due guidance of Mahatma Gandhi Council for Rural Education (MGNCRE), Ministry of Education, Government of India – organised its first Handicrafts Exhibition cum sale on 26/06/2023 (Campus Bazar).

Students from different departments participated in the programme with great rigour and enthusiasm. They were divided into five groups, which has ten members each (50 in total). They prepared several items with soil, leaves, grass, bamboo, stone, beads etc. all in tune with the local culture and social upbringing of Jhargram, Junglemahals area of West Bengal. They also prepared indigenous food for the audience of the day comprising of students, faculty members and some external observers.

Principal, Faculty members and all the office staff duly encouraged our students through their inspiring gestures and words. They also bought several items from the five respective groups. Apart from that external observer also bought several items.

We are looking forward to more such Campus Bazar in future. We humbly thank all the members who were attached to this particular initiative.
